

Topic: Hadith for Special Study (9-10)

(a) Describe their teachings about what Muslims believe.

[02]

(b) Explain how Muslims can put these teachings into action.

[02]

Hadith No 9

مَا أَكَلَ أَحَدٌ طَعَامًا قَطُّ خَيْرًا مِنْ أَنْ يَأْكُلَ مِنْ عَمَلٍ يَدِهِ

No one eats better food than that which he eats out of the work of his hand.

Marking Scheme

(a) Lawful earnings, no matter how meagre, have a high position in Islam. Muslims are encouraged to earn their daily wage honestly and through their own efforts. Beggary, reliance on others and earning unlawfully are condemned in Islam.

(b) A Muslim can act upon this hadith by earning for themselves and their family an honest living through their own efforts. Examples from the life of the Prophet (PBUH) and his companions could be cited in the answers, or candidates could simply give examples of people conducting themselves honestly in the work place.

Structure of Answer

(a) Teachings:	(b) Action:
☐ Main Idea: Importance of Hard work and Halal Earning. ☐ Halal earning is a form of worship. ☐ "...disperse within the land and seek from the bounty of Allah..." [62:10] ☐ Hard work is Secret of National Success. ☐ Begging is opposite of hard work so there is Zero Tolerance policy for Beggars in Islam.	➤ Muslims can put the teachings of this Hadith into action by: ☐ Earning Halal and avoid all other unlawful means. Because this is the secret of personal and collective development. 📖 Ref: "To search lawful earnings is compulsory after obligatory acts" ☐ Muslims should motivate/help each other to work hard and earn Halal and demotivate corruption, easy money and begging etc. ☐ All evil practices of Cheating, harmful blending, corruption and earning easy money by begging must be abolished. ☐ Present day examples: ✓ NGOs should not make people habitual of easy money. ☐ Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) earned Halal money by being shepherd and trading. ☐ 9 out of 10 blessed companions were traders. Most famous & rich ones of them were Hazrat Uthman and Abdul Rahman bin Auf (RA).

Hadith No 10

الساعي على الأرملة والمسكين، كالمجاهد في سبيل الله، أو القائم الليل والصائم النهار.

One who manages the affairs of the widow and the poor man is like the one who exerts himself in the way of Allah, or the one who stands for prayer in the night or fasts in the day.

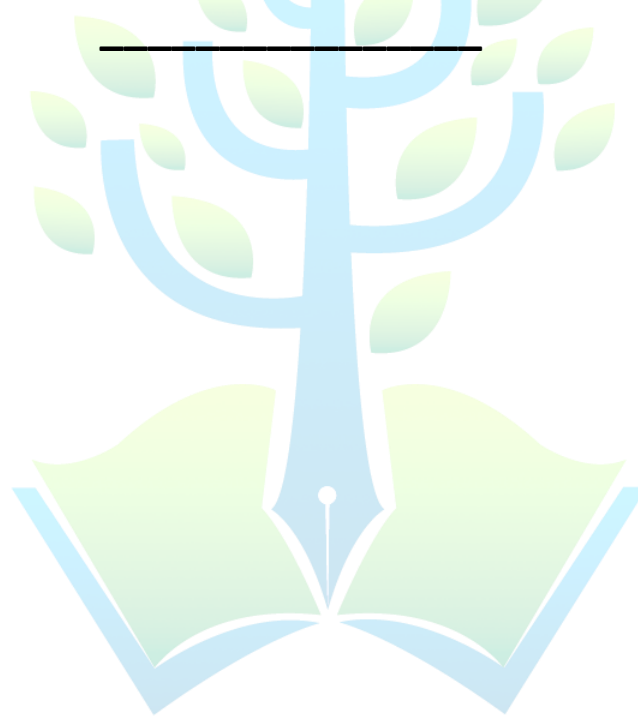

Marking Scheme

(a) The teaching of this Hadith highlights the importance of caring for the vulnerable in society by comparing it to ibadah. Islam gives a lot of stress to looking after the needs of others in society and in this Hadith the Prophet (PBUH) has told Muslims that the rewards of caring for the vulnerable are comparable to fighting jihad in the way of God. Muslims must therefore always be conscious of the needs of others and be willing to help those who need it.

(b) Providing resources for the poor, supporting a widow, giving guidance to orphans are all meritorious deeds that are comparable to fighting jihad in the way of God. Muslims must always be ready to help other fellow beings at all levels and however they can. Examples will help reach a higher level of response.

Structure of Answer

(a) Teachings:	(b) Action:
☐ Main Idea: Rights of fellow beings and Importance of social service. ☐ It tells every Muslim the significance and importance of doing charity and social work.  Hadith: "The believer's shade on the Day of Resurrection will be his charity." [Tirmidhi] ☐ It promotes Equality, Brotherhood and welfare. ☐ It proves that Rights of people are no less than rights of Allah.	➤ Muslims can put the teachings of this Hadith into action by: ☐ Taking care of poor, widow and other downtrodden people of society.  Allah Says: "Never will you attain the good [reward] until you spend from that which you love" [3:92] ☐ Muslims should focus on rights of people and rights of Allah, side by side. ☐ Measures should be taken to end their dependency. Giving eatables and easy money is not recommended. ☐ Present day example: ✓ Evil norm of not marrying divorced/widows should be abolished. ☐ Prophet's (PBUH) marriages with widows. ☐ Financial support system for poor by 2nd Caliph Umar (RA).
