Hadith No 16

المؤمنون كرجل واحد ان اشتكى عينه اشتكى كله وان اشتكى راسه اشتكى كله-

The believers are like a single man; if his eye is affected he is affected, and if his head is affected he is all affected.

Marking Scheme

(a) Islam joins true believers in brotherhood by their common faith. This hadith focusses on how a true believer should feel the pain and suffering of their brothers/sisters and come to their aid. The hadith draws comparisons to the human body and teaches believers that just as the head is the command center and thus vital to humans brotherhood is essential to all believers.

(b) The suffering of a Muslim at all levels, in the family, in the community, in the country or even in the world should be felt by all other Muslims because Islam has joined all Muslims in brotherhood. Muslims should do everything in their power to aid their Muslim brothers at national and international level e.g. donating generously to the Syrian refugees, adopting an orphan child, giving asylum to their brothers from war torn countries is the responsibility of all Muslims. Examples of how by actions at local and international levels Muslim can practice the teaching of this Hadith will indicate a higher level of response.

الْحَيَاءُ لَا يَأْتِي إِلَّا بِخَيْرٍ-

Modesty produces nothing but good.

Marking Scheme

(a) Modesty is a quality which puts a Muslim on the path chosen by the Prophet (PBUH) and takes a Muslim away from all kinds of ill doings. It is a quality of a true believer as it inculcates noble values, piety, God consciousness (Taqwa), morality the list is endless. Modesty can simply be linked to faith, other hadiths could be cited in support of the answer e.g. every religion has a distinctive quality and in Islam it is modesty.

Hadith No 18

لا يدخل النار أحدٌ في قلبه مثقال حبة خردلٍ من إيمانٍ، ولا يدخل الجنة أحدٌ في قلبه مثقال حبة خردلٍ من كبرٍ.

He who has in his heart as much faith as a grain of mustard seed will not enter hell, and he who has in his heart as much pride as a grain of mustard seed will not enter paradise.

Marking Scheme

(a) The teaching of this Hadith confirms what is indicated by the text of the Qur'an that all those who affirm the oneness of God will enter Paradise, initially or later on, unlike the obedient believer who is free of any major sin and will enter Paradise without being exposed to hell fire. Pride on the contrary is linked with arrogance, a trait which led Iblis to be expelled from Paradise and one that Muslims should shun. In this Hadith, the clear teaching is that everything a person has is God given, and that a Muslim should be grateful to God for the blessings given and avoid pride lest he/she be led astray.

(b) Remaining firm in his/her faith and avoiding pride are ways in which the teachings of this Hadith can be practiced. The Prophet (PBUH) remained humble even after the conquest of Makkah. Candidates could say how Iblis, on account of his pride, disobeyed his Creator and was subsequently expelled from Paradise. Hence Muslims should always make sure that there is no place for pride in their hearts. Quotes from the Qur'an and other Hadiths could be given here.

Structure of Answer

(a) Teachings:	(b) Action:
❑ Main Idea: Belief in Hereafter and Strict Accountability. ❑ Grain of mustard seed = strict accountability. ❑ Faith = Submission = Action = Good Deeds. ❑ Opposite of Faith = Pride. 📖 "Pride is My cloak and greatness is My robe, and he who competes with Me in respect of either of them, I shall cast into the Hell Fire." [Abu-Dawood]	➤ Muslims can put the teachings of this Hadith into action by: ❑ Muslims should purify their faith by rectifying their beliefs. ❑ They should also focus on good deeds, as Faith without practice won't do any good. ❑ On the other hand, Muslims should stay away from pride as Allah does not like it. Quran says: 📖 "Indeed, Allah does not like everyone self-deluded and boastful." [31:18] ❑ Present day example: ✓ Muslims are supposed to stay away from national, sectarian, racial, regional pride and arrogance.
	❑ Prophet's (PBUH) humble entrance in Makkah. ❑ Umar bin Khattab (RA) ruler of 2.2 million square miles used to wear a dress with 16-17 patches.

Hadith No 19

الدُّنْيَا سِجْنُ الْمُؤْمِنِ وَجَنَّةُ الْكَافِرِ -

The world is the believer's prison and the unbeliever's paradise.

Marking Scheme

(a) This hadith is telling Muslims that in this world they have to live their lives bearing in mind what has been allowed to them and what is forbidden. And though at times they might find it restricting it is for their benefit. However, those who do not believe in the One God and the Day of Judgment live as they please and to them the charms of this world may seem like paradise. This world is temporary and if one lives one's life in a God conscious manner and righteously they will have everlasting joy in the Akhirah. The focus of this hadith is on individual conduct and how Muslims should always be mindful of their accountability to God.

(b) Living a God-conscious life, keeping away from the forbidden, practicing the Pillars of Islam remembering one's accountability to the Creator and taking all action with that accountability in mind is how this Hadith's teaching can be practiced. Islam does impose certain restrictions on its followers and expects obedience from the believers for which they are rewarded with paradise. Those who do not believe in the One God or Judgment Day can partake from the pleasures of this world as they choose for they don't fear their accountability before God. This Hadith reminds believers to act righteously and remember this world is temporary.

Structure of Answer

(a) Teachings:	(b) Action:
☐ Main Idea: Temporary nature of this world. ☐ World = Test for believers. ☐ Prison for believers = restrictions by Allah. ☐ Paradise for unbelievers = No restrictions - Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) said: 📖 "Live in this world as if you were a stranger or a wayfarer" [Al-Bukhari] ☐ This further clarifies that luxuries & problems of this world cannot be criteria to judge anyone's worth. ☐ A balance of Deen and Dunya is required to succeed in both.	☐ Have faith in life after death. ☐ Live a God-conscious life. 📖 "And the Hereafter is better for you than the first [life]" [93:4] ☐ Being focused on preparation of hereafter. As Allah says: 📖 "And what is the worldly life except the enjoyment of delusion." [57:20] ☐ Should not get tempted by others' freedom. ☐ Present day example: ✓ Muslims should stay away from both extremes. Abandoning and indulging too much in this life both are not recommended. ☐ Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) turned down all luxurious offers of Quraysh and preferred to be a servant of Allah. ☐ Abu Zar Ghiffari (RA) was a living explanation of this Hadith, his trust in Allah and down towards life style.

Hadith No 20

إن الله لا ينظر إلى صوركم وأموالكم ولكن ينظر إلى قلوبكم وأعمالكم.

God does not look at your forms and your possessions, but he looks at your hearts and your deeds.

Marking Scheme

(a) The Hadith ‘actions will be judged by intentions’ sums up the teaching of this Hadith. It could be said that all that a person has, good looks, wealth, fame etc. are given by God and He is not impressed by any of these things. What God looks at is a person’s sincerity and actions. Whatever action a Muslim takes whether it is performing a pillar of Islam or helping another human being the intention behind the action needs to be sincere. It is not the success of that effort that is seen by God but the intention behind it.

(b) In every action a Muslim undertakes the aim should be to gain God’s pleasure. Answers could say that Muslims’ heart and intention need to be sincere in order to achieve this goal. Candidates could give simple examples that if someone is giving a large donation to charity it should be because that person wants to help someone or gain God’s pleasure rather than to be acknowledged as a great philanthropist.

Structure of Answer

(a) Teachings:	(b) Action:
☐ Main Idea: Judgement criteria of God. ☐ It gives a strong message to believers that they should not judge and label each other. ☐ The only one worthy judge is Allah who can see every action and knows intentions hidden in hearts.  Allah says: “O you, who have believed, avoid much [negative] assumption....” [49:12] ☐ It lays emphasis on the importance of intention. Good deed with negative intention is not acceptable in front of Allah. ☐ Actions done for self-projection and worldly gains will not be accepted by Allah. ☐ Good appearance is appreciated.	➤ Muslims can put the teachings of this Hadith into action by: ☐ Not judging and labeling people on the basis of their appearances and status. ☐ Muslims should focus on improving the quality of their deeds and intentions behind them. ☐ Prophet (PBUH) said: “Actions are by intentions” [Al-Bukhari] ☐ Muslims should purify their intentions and dedicate all their energies for the cause of Allah. ☐ Muslims should not only value beautiful appearance and financial status but rather they should look for good character and heart. ☐ Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) selected Bilal Habshi (RA) as his Muadhin, despite his appearance was not very attractive. ☐ A man’s migration was nullified when He migrated to Madinah to get married to a woman.
